

Deanna serves as a Prevention Specialist at ASAP. She has previous experience in the mental health field and is passionate about serving others. She graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor in the Art of Psychology from Talladega College and received her Master of Psychology degree from Troy University. Outside of career and academics, Deanna is a mother and a wife and enjoys spending time with her family.