

Tawana Young serves as the Faith-Based Support Specialist Recruiter at the Agency for Substance Abuse Prevention (ASAP). In this role, she works to build strong partnerships with faith communities to support substance abuse prevention and recovery efforts. With a passion for holistic care and community empowerment, Tawana is dedicated to connecting individuals and organizations with the resources they need to make a lasting impact. Tawana has over 28 years of experience in Mental Health Counseling, Addiction Counseling, Social Services, and Ministry and a heart for service rooted in faith. She is a Youth Leader at the New Life Christian Praise and Worship Center in Huntsville, AL. Tawana is a native of Abbeville, Alabama and a retired Combat Veteran of the United States Army after donning the Nation's cloth for almost 25 years. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Education in Human Services from Wayland Baptist University. Tawana is a certified Faith-Based Support Specialist and is also certified with the state of Alabama Administrative Office of Courts as a Court Referral Education Program Instructor.