

Maiya Selase is the Finance Director at the Agency for Substance Abuse Prevention. Mrs. Selase oversees the organization's financial operations to ensure fiscal responsibility and sustainability.

A product of two Alabama Historically Black Colleges and Universities-HBCUs, Mrs. Selase obtained a Bachelor's Degree from Miles College and a Master's Degree from Talladega College. These distinguished institutions instilled in her a deep commitment to service, resilience and the pursuit of excellence.

As a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Mrs. Selase exemplifies the spirit of civic engagement, leadership and unity. Her guiding principle, "The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others."

Outside of her professional role, Mrs. Selase enjoys exploring her unique passion for thrifting and decorating, combining creativity and resourcefulness to bring beauty and character into everyday spaces.

Mrs. Selase resides in Anniston, Alabama with her husband, Seyram Selase.