

Jasmine Patterson is a Prevention Specialist at the Agency for Substance Abuse Prevention. A native of Anniston, Alabama, she earned her Bachelor of Arts in English from Jacksonville State University. Jasmine is passionate about using communication and education to make a positive impact in her community. She enjoys writing, reading, and finding creative ways to support others.